

GILES LAMB

Giles Lamb is an award winning composer for TV, Film and Games, active since the late 90's. His elegant and emotional compositions lend themselves perfectly to film, with his projects winning a number of awards, most recently, a 'Cannes Golden Lion' for the 'Dead Island Trailer', which also won 'Best Music' at the inaugural Music and Sound Awards.

Giles has worked on several Children's television shows, like the BAFTA-nominated 'My Story', and CBeebies hit 'Woolly and Tig'. His music has been used in acclaimed series' such as 'Hawaii Five-0', as well as feature length productions like 'Valhalla Rising' and 'Sucker Punch'. More recent credits include short indie film 'Boat', cinema spot 'Cineworld Unmissables' and the music for 'Slow Train Through Africa with Griff Rhys Jones', broadcast on ITV.

Giles' music has also featured in a variety of video game titles, from the grim horror of productions 'Dead Island' and 'Resident Evil ORC', to the fantasy epic of 'Fable Legends' and 'Risen 2'. His recent work has seen him score the trailer for the game 'Grey Goo'.

He also has credits on advertisements for companies such as Sky, Scottish Water and Concern Worldwide, always demonstrating his versatility and exceptional range as a composer.
